

Jeanne Stevens-Sollman

Jeanne Stevens-Sollman of Patton Township holds a bachelor of science degree and a bachelor of fine arts degree from Rhode Island College, as well as a master of fine arts degree from Penn State. An internationally known medallistic artist, she produces bronze medallions and relief figures as well as ceramic sculpture.

Jeanne's works in medallistic sculpture are exhibited throughout the United States, in museum collections throughout the world, and in numerous private collections. Her specialties include creating portraits, bronze awards, and plaques that commemorate special occasions, and university maces and presidential chains of office. She serves on the Citizens Coinage Advisory Committee for the United States Mint, helping to select the final design for new coins.

Jeanne also designs and fabricates garden sculptures in clay and bronze, as seen in Childhood's Gate Children's Garden. If you look closely around the garden, you can see Jeanne's work in the form of twelve bronze animals. Jeanne also crafted the bronze medallions in the time spiral.

Reference: centredaily.com/living/article42846882.html

This publication is available in alternative media on request.

Penn State is an equal opportunity, affirmative action employer, and is committed to providing employment opportunities to all qualified applicants without regard to race, color, religion, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, disability, or protected veteran status.

© The Pennsylvania State University 2017 U.Ed. AGR 17-74